Notice of Removal on HHS's Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality Clearinghouse Websites

Overview

Between April and May 2018, HHS's Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) added a notice of removal on its National Guideline Clearinghouse and National Quality Measures Clearinghouse websites, stating that the websites "will not be available after July 16, 2018." AHRQ's archives for the National Guideline Clearinghouse website, hosted at "guideline.gov," are incomplete and interactive features such as search do not function; the National Quality Measures Clearinghouse website, hosted at "qualitymeasures.ahrq.gov," does not appear to have a corresponding archive.

Background

Agency details: The Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality's (AHRQ) mission is to "produce evidence to make health care safer, higher quality, more accessible, equitable, and affordable." AHRQ has been operating both the National Quality Measures Clearinghouse and the National Guideline Clearinghouse websites.

Communications about changes: The agency has proactively announced the removal of its clearinghouse websites (See Webpage 1 and Webpage 2).

Known archives: Some, but not all, "guideline.gov" content can be found within the AHRQ archive, which only preserves webpages, but not interactive features. The "qualitymeasures.ahrq.gov" website does not appear to have a corresponding archive.

Description of Most Notable Changes

1. A notice was posted on the National Guideline Clearinghouse website between April 13, 2018 and May 18, 2018 at the URL www.guideline.gov.
  - a. The notice stated: "This Web site, AHRQ's National Guideline Clearinghouse, will not be available after July 16, 2018. Federal funding through AHRQ will no longer be available to support the NGC as of that date. For additional information, read our full announcement. We will continue to post summaries of new and updated evidence-based clinical practice guidelines until July 2, 2018. For any questions, please contact Mary Nix, mary.nix@ahrq.hhs.gov."
  - b. The archive for the "guideline.gov" website is significantly incomplete. Some pages are stored, but search functionality and interactive features are not preserved, making archived content much more difficult to access and, in many cases, completely unavailable. A comprehensive assessment has not been conducted cross-referencing this archive and the live website.
2. A notice was posted on the National Quality Measures Clearinghouse website between April 13, 2018 and May 1, 2018 at the URL <https://qualitymeasures.ahrq.gov/>.
  - a. The notice is the same as the one for "guideline.gov," but with this website's name substituted in.
  - b. No archive has been identified for the "qualitymeasures.ahrq.gov" website.
